Dear Mr. Furman:

This reply is in response to your letter dated April 25, 2013 to the Cummings for Congress Campaign Committee (C00310318) regarding our April Quarterly Report (01/01/13 – 03/31/13). The Cummings For Congress “best effort” procedures for soliciting contributions is outlined below.

- 1) Solicitation materials include a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information to comply with federal law (see attached).
- 2) A follow-up letter is issued within 30 days requesting the missing contributor's occupation and employer information (see attached).
- 3) Any missing contributor's information received after the reporting period has closed is updated in the next scheduled report.

In addition to the FEC Miscellaneous Report submission (Form 99), we are also sending a copy of this letter and its attachments to you via U.S. mail. Feel free to contact me at (410) 669-8400, should you have any reason to do so.

Sincerely,

Ronald Thompson
Treasurer

By authority: Ron Thompson, Treasurer, Federal law requires a campaign committee to report the name, mailing address, occupation and employer of each individual whose contribution aggregate in excess of $200. Contributions are not deductible for federal income tax purpose. Corporate contributions are not allowed.
